

MARYLAND WINNERS AND HONOREES
AT NATIONAL HISTORY DAY 2007

FINALISTS

Student: Rosanna Kim
Category: Senior Paper
Topic: The March First Movement: A Suppressed Movement That Made Its Mark in History
School: Richard Montgomery High School, Montgomery County
Teacher: Peter Beach

Student: Caitlin Perdue
Category: Senior Individual Performance
Topic: Marie Curie and the Killing Cure
School: Perdue Academy, Montgomery County
Teacher: Susan Perdue

Student: Lauren White
Category: Senior Individual Documentary
Topic: The Hiroshima Maidens Project: A Triumph for Humanity in the Tragic Aftermath of War
School: Huntingtown High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Jonathan Moreland

OUTSTANDING STATE PRIZE WINNERS

Senior Division

Student: Lauren White
Category: Senior Individual Documentary
Topic: The Hiroshima Maidens Project: A Triumph for Humanity in the Tragic Aftermath of War
School: Huntingtown High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Jonathan Moreland

Junior Division

Students: Shayne Kress and Travis Peed
Category: Junior Group Performance
Topic: From the Tragic Burning of Washington to the Triumph in Baltimore
School: Elkridge Landing Middle School, Howard County
Teacher: Benjamin Ruble

SPECIAL PRIZE IN THE HISTORY OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

Students: Gina Lorenzetti and Rebecca Spiro
Category: Junior Group Performance
Topic: Spinoza Remembered
School: North Bethesda Middle School, Montgomery County
Teacher: Patricia Robinson