

MARYLAND WINNERS AND HONOREES
AT NATIONAL HISTORY DAY 2008

TEACHER AWARD

Finalist for the 2008 PBS/NHD Teacher of Merit Award

Dennis Jutras, Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Baltimore City

MEDALIST

Bronze Medal

Student: Lauren White
Category: Senior Individual Documentary
Topic: The Lucky Dragon Incident: A Catalyst to Conflict and Compromise
During the Nuclear Age
School: Huntingtown High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Robert James

FINALISTS

Student: Scott Agnolutto
Category: Senior Individual Exhibit
Topic: Sherman's March: A Means to an End
School: Northern High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Bruce Supanick

Student: Michail Denchev
Category: Senior Web Site
Topic: Energy, Fission, and the Road to Compromise
School: Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, Baltimore City
Teachers: Dennis Jutras and Maureen O'Neill

Student: Annalise Kenney
Category: Senior Paper
Topic: The Calvert Vision: Religious Tolerance in the Maryland Colony
School: Huntingtown High School, Calvert County
Teacher: William McGowan

Student: Lauren White
Category: Senior Individual Documentary
Topic: The Lucky Dragon Incident: A Catalyst to Conflict and Compromise
During the Nuclear Age
School: Huntingtown High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Robert James

OUTSTANDING STATE PRIZE WINNERS

Senior Division

Student: Scott Agnolutto
Category: Senior Individual Exhibit
Topic: Sherman's March: A Means to an End
School: Northern High School, Calvert County
Teacher: Bruce Supanick

Junior Division

Students: Ayushi Aggarwal, Laura Migasiuk
Category: Junior Group Exhibit
Topic: Conflict and Compromise between Labor and Mine Operators
School: Murray Hill Middle School, Howard County
Teachers: Pat Browne and Beth Singleton